

New Home

We have purchased our new home, the old Tom Wilson Barn, which sits on 3.8 acres adjacent to Rancho Linda Vista.

With funds from the generosity of our March Lift Off, we are starting the work of updating the building and installing utilities, services and studio workshop spaces.

This summer we held our largest children's workshop ever, with 86 youth and 12 teachers offering:

- ✍ Poetry & Creative Writing;
- ✍ Digital Video & Editing;
- ✍ Acting & Dramatic Performance;
- ✍ Balinese Drumming & Percussion;
- ✍ Dance & Singing; and
- ✍ Studio Arts.

We've expanded our children's program to include classical guitar, a poetry contest with selected winners attending an evening with Maya Angelou.

About Us

Founded in 2005, RLV OracleArt, Inc. is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to supporting innovative cultural projects, public art education and outreach, as well as archiving and preserving artwork. This initiative builds upon the tradition of creative endeavor established by the Rancho Linda Vista Arts Community in Oracle, AZ by working to foster significant artistic exploration and dialogue, as well as promote cultural opportunities and learning in the arts for people of all ages and backgrounds.

Towards this end, OracleArt will offer facilities for artists to test new ideas in a rural setting of unparalleled beauty while encouraging the sharing of ideas—both with local artists and the surrounding community—through residencies and fellowships, public workshops, performances, lectures, installation and display. RLV OracleArt additionally seeks to safeguard the region's rich artistic heritage through art preservation and promotion.

An important focus of OracleArt is the RLV Summer Youth Workshop, which since 1998 has provided an opportunity for underserved children from the region to experience the joy of music, dance, poetry, drama, film and visual art. Our most pressing need is both to house the already up-and-running Workshop and to create the space necessary to host cultural events and artist studios.

How You Can Participate

1. Become an Angel. As an Angel you will be kept informed and included in all the activities of RLV OracleArt. New members also enjoy 10% discounts off all classes and workshops; 20% off of concerts and performances; and invitations to all of Rancho Linda Vista Barn Gallery Exhibitions throughout the year.
2. Volunteer your skills (You may list your skills on the application form)
3. Consider a pledge or gift beyond the basic Angel Fee. Become a Guardian Angel for which you will receive an Andrew Rush wood engraving "Good News." Or you can aspire to Archangel status and receive a print by Bruce McGrew.

Members will have opportunities to join in fellowship with the creative community of our region that has been quietly gathering over the years, encouraged by the presence of the Rancho Linda Vista art community since 1968.
